COUNCIL NEWS

At a well attended council meeting held on the 17th of April the topics under discussion were mainly concerning the problem of children who fail to attend school, and are known to indulge in mischief and petty theft, and in general display the very evident neglect of their well being by the parents.

It is noted too that families resident here in far too many instances are more concerned with going to work than the proper care of the home and the children who naturally lose all discipline and regard for any authority and in general are not only a disgrace to their family but the whole community.

This meeting was attended by Mrs. Young, Matron of Welland, and district Childrens Aid Society in company with one of the district visitors to wards of the society. Mrs. Young expressed a deep concern toward the problem but remarked that the problem was general and a growing one, but was willing and anxious to co-operate with this Council in discovering ways and means of meeting the problem here, and offered to meet with us again for that special purpose. The matter of Truancy was dealt with in a resolution to communicate with the Board of Education and to bring the subject to their attention.

Mr. Freestone was present and made it clear that so far as he was concerned the objectionable neighbour problem, a number of families would be removed from the community if it was in his power to do so.

Your Editor observed that the problem is one that requires a paid social personnel to advise and direct families in the proper conduct of the home, and that no matter how good the house, it depends on the occupants to make it a home. And some houses give the appearance already of a slum hovel.

Note to our readers:--

These above remarks do not apply in a general way. Most of our tenants are aware of the facts in their own neighbourly, or community, or otherwise; which goes to show that regardless of arguments to the contrary, Men are not equal! nor do many hope to be. If this paper can make people self conscious and willing to correct this condition, then our labour is not in vain.

We are glad to note that more visitors are attending our Council meetings, and we repeat the invitation to Community residents to note the date of our next meeting will be on May 15 Tuesday, and Please resolve to attend. We are glad to welcome earnest interested persons.

Council News continued

At the opening of our meeting of the 17th the council was asked by our President, Mrs. Sampson, to stand in reverent silence to Honour the Passing of America's Greatest President, Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

This was followed by a similar act in respect to the passing of Councillor Douglas father since the last meeting, to him and his we extend our greatest sympathy and regrets.

Mr. Terryberry was a visitor at this meeting and kindly consented to act on the council,

We wish to express devout thanks to Miss Ruth Scott our genial counsellor and Mrs. Fester for the nice social lunch provided at the close. We admit we like it.

Our past President Mr. Earl Treen writes that he keeps informed of our acts through our Newspaper and gives encouragement. A new magazine called "Youth" was also sent to us, which we would recommend to all young people interested in Young peoples community life. Miss Scott will be able to advise concerning subscriptions to all who would like it. This issue has reference to our Welland Community. Toronto, London and Welland only are specifically mentioned.

Another welcome visitor to our Council meeting on Tuesday this week was Mr. Freeman Stephens of 128 McArthur Avenue, who when asked if he would like to act on the Community Council by our President, kindly consented.

We were honoured for the first time by a visit from the regional Counsellor of District No 1 which comprises the towns of Ajax Moulton, the cities of Windsor, Ft. William, Hamilton St. Catharines and Welland.

Mr. L. E. Lowman spoke briefly to the council pointing out objectives of these communities and mentioning the common difficulties of each. He made us feel better satisfied with our own accomplishments, when spoke of Welland as being looked upon as good example to follow.

One of the acts of our council on this date was to provide for the new sandboxes for small children and swings on the courts throughout the area which are being erected to keep small children off the streets.

Mrs. Buchan our Recording Secretary and your Editor are the only two survivors of the original council acting at the opening of the Centre one year ago. Each absent twice in the year.

Winstonville News

Winstonville News is published monthly by the Community Council strictly for the benefit of the community which it tries to serve without profit to anyone.

All communications for this paper should be addressed to Walter F. Gower, 112 Dunkirk Rd. for the Council to Mrs. J. Buchan, Secretary, 8 Dover Road.

We are indebted to several new comers into this department for their interest and helpfulness. We must thank Mr. and Mrs. Fester who in addition all their duties involved in the House Keeping at the Centre and various social activities together with the added duty of constable, find time to help in the assembling of the paper. Now Mrs. Fester is efficiently taking over the distribution and seems to have it well in hand.

Our next issue according to plan will be published June 2. We are unable to state definitely at this time whether or not any further issues will be printed during the Summer Season. Your Editor must relax to allow for Summer activity, which will engage most of his time. We shall look forward to the Autumn for a resumption of the regular issue in September. Meantime for special reasons a dossier may be issued when necessary.

The Editor

Epitaph to

DER BOCHE FUHRER

Der Tag (The day) is yet to be "According to plan" my destiny. Today my frenzied eyes foresee I've yet another enemy Behond! The World now all aflame, Complete at last world misery.

Foolish men I still leave behind To haunt the World with treachery While I, Der Fuehrer, pass beyond The Human sphere to win promotion. Surely my experience must be Greater than he of damnation! The Prince of Hell, to me seems tame, Disaster and Misery are my progeny Tis true the devil knows my name And he's a piker beside o' Me! The Devil waits till men are dead Before he feeds them to fiery Hell, He must surely be filled with dread As he contemplates on Himmler as well.

What in the name of perfidy (presuming of course) what he claims to be

Does the Devil have on me.

I, Der Fuehrer, am greater than he When I assume command of Hell.

The people will dread my purgatory There is no place I love so well So the future Boche of Hell is ME. There's no other place for me to crawl

No other place on Earth is for me And Heaven itself is much too small Behelzebub move over, make way for me.

LITTLE BITS OF HUMOUR

Wife:- I see a spider web in the corner, Mary. Why is it there?

Mary:- The spider put it there,
Ma'am.

Man:- Did I leave an umbrella
here yesterday?

Restaurant Owner:- What kind of an umbrella?

Man:- Oh, any kind! I'm not a bit fussy.

He--(as they started thru a tunnel)
This tunnel cost $10,000.

She--(as they came out)-But don't you think it was worth it?

Mother-- You didn't let that soldier kiss you last night,
did you?

Daughter-- Certainly I let him
steal a few kisses, mother
dear. It would be silly to send him cookies and write him letters to build up his morale-then tear it down when he gets a furlough.

Man-- I hear that your father-in-law gave you an awful fright
the day you were married?

Friend-- Yeah, My wife is the homeliest thing you ever saw.

ADMINISTRATOR'S CORNER Cont.

This year we hope to see well kept lawns and some care given to the shrubs planted in front of each house.

For the benefit of those who have not yet been able to secure a lawn mower you can borrow one from:

Winstonville West,
Maintenance Building,
74 Churchill Avenue.

Winstonville East,
I. Brennand,
405 Commando Street.

You will be responsible for same whilst in your possession and will be expected to return it promptly.

Don't be afraid to cut any long grass or weeds in the ditches on your frontage and we hope that any tin cans and other debris in front or around your home will be gathered together and disposed of.

If everybody co-operates, all streets should present an attractive appearance.

the fire may cast about a wide area, and the danger to our home is such as to need care and caution against it spreading to our homes.

We suggest that more people go to church Sundays at least, we all need its calm influence, and restful relief from labour and we here quote scripture for your own consideration: "Blessed is that Nation which Honours the Lord".

Our Compliments to Brantford's new paper. Their first issue is a good sign of success in the future.

A recent fire was caused by a child aged four obtaining some matches and setting light to some paper in the storage closet in an upstairs room.

When the alarm was given, the Mother made an immediate search for the lad and found him so thoroughly frightened by what he had done that he was hiding under the bed in the room filled with flames and smoke.

No need to dwell on what might have ended with fatal results but parents are urged to exercise great care that matches are not within reach of small children and to bear in mind that it is contrary to the Fire Regulations to store paper or any other inflammable materials in the cupboards or under the stairs.

Special attention to these matters by all tenants is urged and a check up of your homes should be made immediately and any fire hazards removed and your children warned about the damage of playing with fire.

V. Grant Freestone:
Administrator.

Again we remind our readers that the garden contest will be held as usual this Summer and it was hoped that some interested people would get busy and form a Garden Club for mutual benefit.

The area will be divided as last year, and prizes may be the same any change will be made known in our next issue.

Conference of Niagara District Wartime Housing areas, has now been post dated to Sept. 15th. it is thought that the fall is the most suitable time. All areas in said district will please take notice. To be held in Winstonville Community Hall.
